FREE Insurance Claim Review and Property Inspection

While a loss assessor can provide the most value at the beginning of the claims process, we can still work with you if you've already spoken to your insurance company and even received a settlement offer. There are no upfront costs. We only get paid when we collect money from your insurance company and your only potential outlay should a cash settlement not be taken is your policy excess. Occasionally, policyholders are just looking to receive a cash settlement and then arrange the repair works themselves once we managed the settlement negotiation on their behalf. loss assessing fee, usually around 15% - 20% of the claim value.

If you have damage, contact us today for a FREE claim review and property inspection. There's no cost, no obligation, and what you learn could get you a higher settlement.

INSURANCE CLAIMS MANAGEMENT

Get the OPTIMUM PAYOUT

If you have recent property damage due to a storm, fire, flood or impact, the way you handle your insurance claim is critical. It could be the difference between whole restoration or a substantial financial loss.

Loss Adjuster work for the Insurance Company

That's why when you've had a property loss, the burden of proof is on you, the policy holder. But proving a loss is no easy task.

You need experience in reading insurance policies and knowledge about construction and building codes. The insurance company is looking out for itself. You want an expert on your side protecting your best interests.

You want every penny you're entitled to.

Our Loss Assessors can negotiate the optimum settlement for you.

Why You Need a Loss Assessor?

You have an insurance policy with a reputable company. You've always paid your premiums. Now that you have a claim, you just want what you're due. If the extent of damage to your property requires the appointment of a Loss Adjuster, many people seek their own representation in the form of a Loss Assessor. In order to ensure a fair insurance policy settlement is offered.

What do we do?

After assessing property damage we prepare a work schedule and quotation. We then negotiate and settle the claim with the policy holder's insurance company or appointed loss adjuster.

Each Concept claims manager typically uses a local contractor base to carry out all property repair works. You only pay the policy excess.

We're on Your Side

Managing an insurance claim can be overwhelming. When we take on your case, we'll handle all the paperwork, follow-up and negotiations.

We provide the following services:

- ✓ Review your policy: Determine all applicable coverage and entitlements
- ✓ Document all damages in writing and photos.
- ✓ Estimate construction and content replacement costs
- ✓ Calculate losses: like additional living expenses, business interruption, etc...
- ✓ Negotiate and settle claim
- ✓ Recover the full amount you're due

We optimise your claim and expedite the recovery process so you'll be able to restore your property and get back to your normal life as quickly as possible.
